

Top Ten Venues

Royal College of Physicians

A firm favourite that never disappoints! From exceptional staff, amazing in-house AV, brilliant auditoriums and iconic modern architecture. The venue is situated in Regent's Park with great public transport connections.

BMA House

An array of rooms to choose from that suit all, beautiful outdoor areas and catering that leaves you wanting more. AV technicians that go the extra mile to ensure the event run smoothly.

Edgbaston Park Hotel

One for the smaller meetings, as it does the job well. Beautiful meeting space and bedrooms at this wonderful venue in Birmingham. We have run events here on multiple occasions and it's yet to disappoint, we are looking forward to our NeoCard-UK conference here in September.

Sheffield Hallam

BAPM Annual 2023 was a hit here, so we are back for 2024. The venue worked so well and enabled us to deliver such a great meeting.

Mary Ward House

A beautiful venue, filled with history with light and airy rooms allowing for natural daylight. With a variety of rooms to choose from this is one we would be sure to reach out to when running an event in London.

The Royal Society of Medicine

Versatile for its hybrid aspect and variety of meeting spaces, based close by to Oxford Circus London. What's lovely about this venue is profits go into supporting the education of healthcare professionals at the Royal Society of Medicine.

Pullman London St Pancras

A go to venue and one we use often with very efficient and accommodating staff. Fantastic travel connections. Great for events that require accommodation with it having plenty of bedrooms onsite.

IET London: Savoy Place

A new find for us and one we will be sure to use again. With breathtaking views and brilliant service, the venue ticked all our boxes to ensure our Nurses Study Day went to plan.

Millennium Point

Great for transport connection as it is located right outside the city centre of Birmingham. With versatile and unique spaces to offer this venue is great not only for your meeting but conference dinner or social events.

Manchester United Stadium

With plenty of spaces to choose from, this venue offers a great space for larger meetings. With great transport links from the city making it very accessible. The venue was perfect for our ISPE Meeting.
